

The description said: `hunt our discord server`. This suggests that the flag was likely hidden somewhere within the Discord server.

Upon examining the server, nothing initially appeared interesting. However, I recalled once using a version of Discord called BetterDiscord, which supports plugins. One such plugin is called `ShowHiddenChannels`, which reveals hidden channels on a server.

I used this plugin and discovered that the flag was hidden inside a hidden voice channel.

And here is the proof of finding the flag:
